Glory to Jesus Christ!

My dear Friends,

Happy Sunday to all of you! I trust that my message found everyone well and sound during these days, as we are still trying to return to some sort of normalcy.

August 13th is the last day of my vacation (staycation ☺). I am not sure that it has been a vacation... ☺ Things are different this year, yet I am not complaining at all. Praise the Lord that it's not worse! Just imagine for a second not having electricity or water, for example. With the Lord's help, we shall survive this pandemic that I hope ends soon and that no more people would have to suffer or die. May our Lord have mercy on us all!

Just to update you on a few other parish matters:

- Please keep in mind that August 1st through 14th we as the Church observe the Dormition Fast. Therefore, those of us, who are not excused from fasting, are required to fast according to the norms of the Church.
- Let's continue to pray (daily if you can) the prayers from the Prayer Corner and thank you for your benevolence!
- If you can, please join this month in the powerful prayer of the Rosary that takes place at one or both of our churches on Sundays half an hour before the Divine Liturgy. Please check the bulletin for the exact schedule.
- Let's also continue to keep in our prayers all the sick people in our two parishes. May our Triune God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit heal all of them in no time through the intercession of His and our Most Holy Mother and all the Angels and Saints!
- Our weekly bulletins are available online at both churches' websites (www.holytrinityucc.com and www.stanneucc.com). Thank you!

Furthermore, I would like to thank those of you, who have been sending us your donations. If you still cannot come to your parish church at this time, please continue to support it by sending us your weekly donations at the address below and I thank you very much for your generous patronage of our parishes. Attention parishioners of St. Anne Church: please do not mail your donations to St. Anne Church, but to our parish office in Youngstown, writing out your checks to St. Anne Church:

Holy Trinity Ukrainian Catholic Church
526 West Rayen Ave.
Youngstown, OH 44502

Should there be anything else that needs my or Dean's attention, please let us know at once.

May our Triune Lord: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit continue to bless you and your loved ones! May He protect each of us from all illnesses, especially the coronavirus! May He heal all the people in the world, who are infected with it! May He protect all people in the world who are on the front lines in the fight against it as well as everyone who works in public places! And may He rest in peace the souls of all people in the world, who died from the virus and any other disease, giving consolation to the families, relatives, and friends they left behind! Let us present all of these petitions to our Triune Lord through the intercession of the Most Holy Theotokos and all the Angels and Saints!

Blessed Sunday! Blessed feast of the Dormition of the Most Holy Theotokos to you and your loved ones on August 15th! Have a joyful and relaxing summer!

Слава Ісусу Христу!

Dear Father Lubomyr and Parishioners of St. Anne's Ukrainian Byzantine Catholic Church,

On behalf of all the Oblate Sisters and the Oblate Sisters Auxiliary, I want to thank you for your most generous donation of $100.00 given on July 16, 2020. Since you received no material goods or services for this donation, God will bless you abundantly. Our prayers accompany you and your dear family every day.

This donation has helped the Sisters meet expenses that the canceled 2020 Bella Sera fundraiser was to supplement. God always provides through loving and generous friends such as you.

We look forward to the day when we can once again visit and enjoy each other's company. Until then, know that you hold a special place in our hearts and that we lovingly see you in our mind's eye.

In Christ,

Sister Joyce Candidi, OSHJ

 Regional Superior

Glory to Jesus Christ!

Human soul is colorless. Every single human person is loved and known personally by our Lord. Every single human person's life - from conception to natural death - matters!

Слава Ісусу Христу!

Душа людини безколірна. Наш Господь любить і особисто знає кожну людину. Життя кожної людини - від зачаття до природної смерті - має значення!

Pope Francis in solidarity with the people of Ukraine

Almost 1 million people have personally felt the Pope's "deep affection and solidarity" through the "Pope for Ukraine" project launched in June 2016.

By Gabriella Ceraso and Sr Bernadette Mary Reis, fsp (Source: www.vaticannews.va)

Prayer and charity: these are the two arms Pope Francis has repeatedly extended from the beginning of his Pontificate to the "dear Ukrainian people", especially to those afflicted by a 6-year war on the eastern border of the nation. On numerous occasions, Pope Francis has brought them to the world's attention. The last time was at the end of last Sunday's Angelus prayer. In that appeal, Pope Francis begged that a ceasefire implemented on Monday be respected so the Ukrainian people can enjoy a long-awaited peace.

His appeal comes just as the "Pope for Ukraine" project draws to a close. Pope Francis launched the "Pope for Ukraine" project in June 2016. The Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development has been supervising it. Just two years after the project launched, 16 million euros had been collected from all of Europe's dioceses in addition to a personal donation from Pope Francis.

1 million people aided

As of November 2018, thanks to the Pope's project, almost 1 million people had been helped: heaters had been installed in family homes, children suffering from PTSD received services and cardiologist exams at the "Kramatorsk City Hospital", poverty-stricken people and the homeless could take refuge in a social centre created at a Church in Kharkiv and single mothers had been given a home in Korotych.

Through this project, "Pope Francis wished to show deep affection and solidarity with all Ukrainian people, and with those who suffer as a result of the protracted dramatic conditions caused by the war, without any distinction on the basis of religion, confession or ethnicity". Thus, the project leaves behind a luminous trail of ecumenical cooperation and charity that will continue to aid people due to the concrete things that have been done.

Project completed

In an interview with Vatican News, Bishop Eduard Kava, Auxiliary Bishop of Leopoldis spoke with Gabriella Ceraso about the Pope's benevolence to Ukraine and its people.

To date, Bishop Kava said that all the projects initiated through the "Pope for Ukraine" project have been completed. The only work that remains is that of "supplying machinery for a hospital dedicated to children". It is the children, he said, who have paid the highest price in a conflict that continues to fester.

Reconstruction has also been one of the project's goals. Bishop Kava says that "we have also done a lot in the reconstruction of houses to give people a semblance of normality." He says that the situation "is not as tragic as it was 4-5 years ago. But it is clear that, for example, families with many children and elderly people who receive small pensions still need help the Church's help."

A sign of ecumenism

The "Pope for Ukraine" project had been implemented through the collaboration of the Apostolic Nunciature to Ukraine, and Technical Committees located in Zaporizhia and Kyiv, as well as charitable organizations under the auspices of both the Roman Catholic and Greek-Catholic churches, and other Christian and international organizations. It has been "a beautiful sign of ecumenism", remarks Bishop Kava, who describes how the work "was done truly together."

"In this project, we all worked together... We collaborated with the Protestants and with many international organizations. This was a sign of good ecumenism for us. You could say that this initiative of the Holy See was the only one where we all really worked together to help the population."

The project endures

Francis's words, appeals and gestures of tenderness concretized through the "Pope for Ukraine" project are of "great help", Bishop Kava emphasizes. Furthermore, "the whole process of solidarity" it initiated and the completed individual projects will continue to serve everyone.

"Even if the Pope's project ends, the Church will in fact continue to give its help and stay close to the people, either through Caritas or through our parishes or through our volunteer organizations. There is not a lot of money but we are present and close."
